Dean is joined by Bill Calvin, President of LifeNet with summer interns Elliot Guerra, Marissa Southwell and Anthony Armando during their July 25th. visit to Gateway – Irvington.

8 come to Christ in July .. Here is one of their stories

Reshonda, age 22, when asked how she felt about her two previous abortions (at age 15 and 17) stated: 'A sense of loss and guilt and regret'. Irene, a new Irvington volunteer, showed her Harder Truth. Reshonda said that she didn't know that this was 'what they had done to her baby'. Irene shared with her about forgiveness in Jesus Christ alone. Reshonda made a commitment to Him that very evening! (By the way, her test was negative)

New Volunteer Training Dates!

October 17, 19, 24 and 26, 2002

Will you be there?

Praise the Lord!

Natasha, age 18, when asked about abortion stated, "it's bad", yet was undecided as to what she would do. Here's how she came to our Elizabeth office: Dave, one of our 'male counselors' gave literature to a Tony* young man headed for Steven Brigham's abortion facility. The man said he was there to be with his girlfriend who was aborting their baby. He took the literature and went upstairs. Shouting was heard. Our staff prayed for this couple. When they finished praying, Tony* came to our door and asked if we could help him by going upstairs and encouraging Natasha to leave the abortion facility. Dave boldly responded to Tony, "Go upstairs and get her!" And that he did! Dave counseled with Tony" as Marisol spoke with Natasha. They had an ultrasound on the spot, and are now keeping their baby!

Rev. Michael Westbrook, Chairman of the Board of Gateway (and our 2002 Banquet Speaker) co-teaches with the Dean on the subject of chastity at St. Pails UFW Baptist Church, in Newark, NJ on August 2nd.

Crystal, age 13, came to Gateway-Irvington in March 2002. She was 24 weeks pregnant and still seeking an abortion. One abortion facility in Montclair, NJ had turned her down due to her age and length of gestation, and she was headed to another facility in Englewood, NJ. Her mother accompanied her. We showed them both The Harder Truth video. Crystal's reaction: "That's nasty!" She changed her mind, and we referred her to St. Michaels Hospital in Newark for pre-natal care. Baby Amber, 8 pounds, 4 ounces was born in late July. Praise the Lord!
